QUARTERS FOR MIDDIES.

Annapolis, Md., May 14 .- Lieut. Com Richard Glendon, of the Naval Acadassurances from the Vesper Rowing Association, of Philadelphia, for a race between the second and third Vesper crews and the navy second and third eights, to be rowed here June 1. These races will take the place of those canapproval of the academy authorities.

The middles had strongly hoped that Pennsylvania would consent to send its 'varsity and freshmen eights here to fill that date, but it is now thought improbable that the Quakers will do so. FIRST RACE—Four and one-half furlongs. Waterneck, 133 (Moreland). 10 to 1, won; Sabado, 106 (Troxret), 4 to 1, second; Orlando. 103 (Minder), 2-to 1,
